The Funeral Plan that makes perfect sense

Thinking about your own funeral is never an easy thing to do. However, it can be comforting and reassuring to know that you've taken care of these arrangements, which is sure to provide financial and practical help for your loved ones at an already distressing time.

Anyone can take out a Perfect Choice Funeral Plan, there's no upper age limit and no medical or health questions to answer. Once you've taken out a Plan, all of the funeral director's costs will be covered.

Any money you may have paid towards the cost of payment to third parties will rise in line with the Retail Price Index (RPI). These payments include doctors, clergy and crematoria fees etc. If the cost of these payments rise at a rate in excess of RPI, then your next of kin/executor will be required to pay any shortfall unless the funeral services are carried out by the funeral directing firm who originally arranged the funeral plan. In this case the funeral directing firm guarantees that the third party costs will be met in full.

Putting your plans in place

We pride ourselves on giving you the funeral you want and your funeral director will arrange everything on your behalf. You can either have a burial or cremation, and if you have any special requirements, such as hymns or readings, these can be noted on your Funeral Plan, so your wishes are made known.

Our Plans are very flexible, so if you change your mind or would like to add any other requests, you can do so at any time.

About Perfect Choice Funeral Plans

Perfect Choice Funeral Plans are brought to you by the National Association of Funeral Directors (NAFD) whose member firms carry out over 80% of all funerals in the UK.

Each and every funeral is provided by a funeral director that is a member of NAFD, so you can be sure that your funeral will be of the highest possible standard, in accordance with a strict code of practice.

The money from your Plan is invested in a Whole of Life Assurance Policy with Ecclesiastical Life Ltd. Ecclesiastical is authorised by the Financial Services Authority and Ecclesiastical's life assurance policy is protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.
